

Banned Drinker Register

Service Information Barkly

What does it mean to have a Banned Drinker Order (BDO)?

- Can I drink alcohol?
 - No. You cannot purchase, possess or consume alcohol during the period in which the BDO is in force.
- Can other people give me alcohol?
 - No. People who give alcohol to someone subject to a BDO may in some circumstances be charged with a criminal offence, fined and placed on the BDR for 12 months.
- Can I change how long I have a BDO for?
 - If you complete a therapeutic support program you may be eligible for a reduction of your BDO.

Getting Help:

- If you want to change the problems you are having with alcohol, you can get help.
- Some people need a safe place to stop drinking, this might be at a withdrawal place or a residential program.
- Some people need someone to talk to such as a counselling service.

Counselling and Support Services:

- ADSCA Barkly Alcohol and other Drugs
Specialised assessment, treatment and referral and a non-residential counselling service for people with alcohol, drugs, volatile substances.

Phone: (08) 8962 4386
Room 14, Tennant Creek Hospital
45 Schmidt St, Tennant Creek NT 0860
- Anyinginyi Health Aboriginal Corporation
Provides primary health care services.

Phone: (08) 8962 2633
1 Irvine Street, Tennant Creek NT 0860

Withdrawal Services:

- Tennant Creek Hospital
Provides medical supervision and monitoring of inpatients withdrawing from alcohol and other drugs.

Phone: (08) 8962 4399
45 Schmidt Street, Tennant Creek NT 0860

Rehabilitation Services:

- BRADAAG
BRADAAG has a range of residential and day alcohol and other drug programs.

Phone: (08) 8963 2500
29 Staunton Street, Tennant Creek NT 0860

Resources:

- SMART Recovery
<https://smartrecoveryaustralia.com.au>
- Alcoholics Anonymous
www.aa.org.au

Making our community safer

1800 BDR 226
www.BannedDrinkerRegister.nt.gov.au

